From the Director

Our curriculum committee continues to amaze me. In addition to our busy co-chairs for our spring and fall semesters, we now have chairs dedicated to making our winter and summer semesters more robust. I hope that you enjoy more selection this summer semester and that we see you on campus in June, July, and August!

Summer semester is open to members and nonmembers at the same cost, $8 a single-session course. Please take this opportunity to introduce a friend or family member to all that OLLI has to offer.

For new members, welcome! To keep you ‘in-the-know,’ our summer and winter catalogs are printed in-house. They are available online, in the OLLI classroom prior to the end of the semester, and outside the OLLI office all summer. The OLLI office is in the Pullo Family Performing Arts Center (The Pullo Center,) bottom floor, room 117.

Your fall catalog will arrive in your mailbox in mid-July. Fall registration opens on Monday, August 1 at 8:00 a.m. for OLLI members. For more information about OLLI, please explore our website, olli.psu.edu/york and if you are on Facebook, follow OLLI for updates, course highlights, social events, and much more! @OLLIPennStateYork

See you this summer!

Cordially,
Jennifer Geubtner-May, Ed.D.

OLLI Membership

OLLI membership dues are $50 a year on a rolling basis. A membership is valid for 365 days from the day you join. Membership can be renewed no sooner than 30 days before your current membership expires. Your renewal date is on your OLLI membership card. You can join OLLI or renew membership online or by mail, using the form at the end of this catalog. Every new member will receive an OLLI lanyard and membership card at your first class. If renewing, your new card will be available when you check-in for class.

How to Register for Courses

Go to olli.york.psu.edu and click on the Register for Courses button or CLICK HERE. Select Summer 2022 semester.

If you are not an OLLI York member, you will still have to create a username and password when registering for courses. Please save these for future registrations.

If registering by mail, use the form at the end of this catalog and return with your payment to the address on the form.

By phone. Using a major credit card, call the Outreach Noncredit Registration Office at 814-867-4973. Payment by major credit card is preferred. *Noncredit Registration Office hours are Monday–Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Course Confirmation

When registering online you will receive an instant email confirmation of registration and payment once your course registration is complete. Mailed registrations will receive an email confirmation once the noncredit registration office at University Park has received and entered your course registration.

You will receive another class-specific email confirming class details including date, time, and location the week prior to each in-person class. For online classes held via Zoom you will receive an email with the Zoom link the day before the class.

Please let us know as soon as possible if you are unable to attend a course. This allows us to add someone from the wait list if the course is full. Also, we can credit your account if you let us know at least a week prior to the course start date.

For detailed information about registering for courses, membership, the history of OLLI, volunteering opportunities, Special Interest Groups (SIGs) and much more, please go to our website at olli.psu.edu/york

SUMMER AT OLLI

Courses and events are listed in chronological order.

Instructor biographies and a one-page summer calendar follow these listings. All in-person courses will be held in the OLLI classroom, Main Classroom Building, Main Conference Center, room 31 B and C, unless otherwise noted.

Let's Do Lunch at Southern Sweets by Jennie T!

Up for a yummy meatball sub with a pickle slice, chips and beverage for just $8? Join us at the new bakery/cafe, Southern Sweets by Jennie T. in Jacobus. For dessert, you can choose from a scrumptious selection of fresh-baked cupcakes, cookies, and cakes. Don't miss the heavenly snickerdoodle sandwich cookies!

Since the eatery is new to the area, they only provide one lunch special each day they're open, most for only $8. They bake/cook almost everything from scratch and in small batches, all very fresh. With fourteen tables, there's enough room for a group and there's lots of parking in front of and behind the building, and across the street in the side parking lot of Smith Village Furniture. Located at 51 N. Main Street, Jacobus, PA 17407, Southern Sweets is inside the Grey Beard's Antiques building. With four floors of antiques and collectibles, you may even want to do a little browsing after dessert!

Date: Thursday, June 9

Time: 12:00-1:00 p.m.

Place: Southern Sweets, 51 N. Main Street, Jacobus, PA 17407

Hate Crimes with Stacey Waters

Wednesday, June 15

4:30–5:30 p.m.

Free and Online via Zoom.

Registration required.

This presentation will provide an overview of the topic, equip attendees with the knowledge to recognize hate crime scenarios and include resources/recourse for those affected by bias and/or hate crimes.

Presenter: Stacey Waters began her career with the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission (PHRC) investigating unlawful discrimination in 2008. She attended Lincoln University and earned a B.A. in English liberal arts. She attended Shippensburg University and earned her master of science in counseling and college student personnel. In 2014, she left the commission to work as an equal opportunity specialist at the Department of Labor and Industry. In 2018, she joined the Department of Corrections as chief of investigations and training where she continued to investigate unlawful discrimination and provide a variety of trainings including, but not limited to, diversity, equity, and inclusion training and unconscious bias training. In September of 2021, she returned to the PHRC as an education and outreach coordinator educating the community about unlawful discrimination and other relevant topics. Waters regularly volunteers in her community as a member of the Harrisburg Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

OLLI's Lecture Series was developed to present timely topics by professionals who are experts in their field. Learn more about OLLI at olli.psu.edu

Monthly Food Truck Fridays

Springettsbury Township Park hosts “Food Truck Fridays” every Friday during the summer. There are different food trucks with different kinds of food at reasonable prices. Sounds good, right? Want to make it even more special? Combine it with a little walk with OLLI friends in the park starting at 10:00 a.m., purchase your food truck lunch (from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.), and enjoy at picnic tables with OLLI friends. The walk is at-your-own-pace, and you can rest on a bench or stop walking at any time. Or, you can just meet for lunch!

The Social Committee will choose a Friday each month for the walk and lunch.

Watch for each month’s date in OLLI’s Wednesday e-newsletter. The event is free, but we will ask for registration so we know how many to expect. Ice cream cone for lunch anyone?

Date: One Friday in June, July, August, and September

Time: 10:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

Place: Springettsbury Township Park, 1501 Mt. Zion Road, York, PA 17402. Meet in the parking lot right off Mt. Zion Road.

Fee: FREE but we will request registration.

Social Committee Event

All in One Room: These Small Schools Taught Big Lessons

Those were the days when everyone in class drank from the same cup; when an orange that came at Christmas was as coveted as a cell phone today. Talk about these schools with former students, and you'll soon be awash in memories and opinions about getting back to basics today. These schools lacked labs and libraries, and students ended their education at the eighth grade. At one point before consolidation in the 1950s, York County led the state in public one-room schools with 350 plus dotting the countryside. Small buildings they were, but places with outsized influences, even today.

Date: Monday, June 20

Time: 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Place: Main, 31 B and C

Fee: $8, both members and nonmembers, REGISTER

Instructor: Jim McClure

Tour of the Penn State York Campus

New to OLLI or just want a refresher of the campus? Take a tour that will highlight where to park, how to get to the OLLI classroom from different parking lots, Rosie's Café and coffee shop, the OLLI office, Lee R. Glatfelter Library, the Pullo Family Performing Arts Center, bookstore, and places to relax between courses. *This tour will involve steps and inclines. A more accessible tour can be provided upon request.

Date: Monday, June 20

Time: 12:45-1:45 p.m.

Place: OLLI at Penn State York, Conference center. Meet in the area outside of the OLLI classroom.

Fee: FREE, but you must REGISTER

Summer Movies 2022: *The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance

The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance (1962) is a western starring James Stewart. Questions arise when Senator Stoddard (James Stewart) attends the funeral of a local man named Tom Doniphon (John Wayne) in a small Western town. This movie has CC.

Portrayal of Pearl S. Buck

Pearl S Buck was an American author. She was the daughter of missionaries and spent her childhood in China. This gave her an appreciation for the culture and most of all the people of China. Her experiences led to her book The Good Earth which won the Pulitzer Prize for fiction and led to the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1938. Her passion for the people of China continued throughout her life. Her story will be told through an impersonator.

Date: Tuesday, June 21

Time: 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Place: Main, 31 B and C

Fee: $8, both members and nonmembers, REGISTER

Instructor: Deborah Miehl

OLLI Picnic: We're Celebrating the Longest Day of the Year!

The official start of summer is June 21! Bring your hot dogs, macaroni and cheese, watermelon, outdoor games, and playlists with speakers to the Elm Pavilion at John Rudy State Park. We'll fire up the grills for summer treats and plug in crockpots to keep our sides warm. Think of munching on some traditional picnic food (hamburgers, baked beans, cole slaw, s'mores) and some not so traditional picnic food. Let's not forget the yummy, layered cookie crust, chocolate pudding, strawberries and whipped cream summer dessert - for a truly happy ending! Our background will be the natural beauty of the park mixed in with some of our favorite old and new songs and the yelps of wins and defeats from the cornhole game players. There will be other games, too! We may need a few cozy lanterns with LED candles as we wind down with our stories and laughter.

You're coming now, right? Just register so we know how many picnickers to expect!

Date: Tuesday, June 21

Time: 4:00-8:30 p.m.

Place: John Rudy State Park, 400 Mundis Race Road, York, PA 17406

Fee: FREE, but you must REGISTER

Who Lives or Lived Here: An OLLI Quiz

This quiz will show you pictures of various places where people live. All you have to do is name the person or people who live there. It's all for fun. Your answer sheet can be downloaded before the course: An easy one with the answers in alphabetical order and a hard one with no answers listed. But no one will know how you did unless you tell them! Download your answer sheet from the email you will be sent before the course.

Date: Tuesday, June 28

Time: 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Place: Main, 31 B and C

Fee: $8, both members and nonmembers, REGISTER

Instructor: Robert Anderson

Minerals in Our Lives

Minerals are an important but often underappreciated part of our lives. This course will define what a mineral is and then explore some of the interesting properties minerals display. With that background we can examine some of the ways minerals impact our world. We will take a look at local examples of historically important minerals related to iron and lime production. We will also explore how minerals and mineralogy are important in many high tech applications.

Date: Tuesdays, June 28

Time: 1:00-2:30 p.m.

Place: Main, 31 B and C

Fee: $8, both members and nonmembers, REGISTER

Instructor: Kyle Trostle

Scandals of the Indian Royals

Americans have been fascinated by the scandals of the British kings and queens ever since we gained our independence. More recently, TV series such as I Claudius and Rome have provided an introduction to the less savory behaviors of that period of time. However, the equally bizarre conduct of the Maharajahs and Maharanis of India are unknown to most people in the West today. This Zoom course will deal with some of the most outrageous examples. The format will be lectures followed by discussion. Nothing needs to be purchased, but for those who would like to get a head start, most histories of India refer to the role of the Maharajahs in precolonial times as well as under British rule. V. P. Menon's Integration of the Indian States has the best information on how independent India brought these states into the Indian Union in modern times.

Date: Thursdays, June 30 and July 7

Time: 1:00-2:30 p.m.

Place: Online, Zoom (link will be sent the day before the class)

Fee: $16, both members and nonmembers, REGISTER

Instructor: Joel Rodney

Rock and Roll History: The Myths, Legends and the Ridiculous

The rock and roll world is full of sensational stories, conspiracies, and all sort of flummery. Learn about the ones that have stood the test of time and why they remain so deeply ingrained in our pop culture.

Date: Wednesday, July 6

Time: 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Place: Main, 31 B and C

Fee: $8, both members and nonmembers, REGISTER

Instructor: Kevin Buck

The Space Telescopes: Hubble and James Webb

The James Webb Space Telescope (JWST) launched on Christmas morning 2021, providing a welcome, albeit delayed, gift to professional and amateur astronomers around the globe. This course provides the history of the JWST's predecessor, the Hubble Space Telescope, and explains the background, development, and construction of the most powerful telescope ever launched into orbit. No prior experience required.

Date: Fridays, July 8 and 15

Time: 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Place: Main, 31 B and C

Fee: $16, both members and nonmembers, REGISTER

Instructor: Lydell Nunn

Summer Book Club: *The Dictionary of Lost Words

Set when the women's suffrage movement was at its height and the Great War loomed, The Dictionary of Lost Words reveals a lost narrative, hidden between the lines of a history written by men. It's a delightful, lyrical and deeply thought-provoking celebration of words, and the power of language to shape the world and our experience of it.

Date: Monday, July 11

Time: 1:00-2:30 p.m.

Place: Main, 31 B and C

Fee: $8, both members and nonmembers, REGISTER

Summer Movies 2022: *The Great Dictator

The Great Dictator (1940) is an American satirical comedy-drama film written, directed, produced, scored by, and starring British comedian, Charlie Chaplin, following the tradition of many of his other films. Having been the only Hollywood filmmaker to continue to make silent films well into the period of sound films, Chaplin made this his first true sound film.

Date: Monday, August 1

Time: 3:00-5:30 p.m.

Place: Main, 31 B and C

Fee: $8, both members and nonmembers, REGISTER

Summer Book Club: West With Giraffes by Lynda Rutledge

An emotional, rousing novel inspired by the incredible true story of two giraffes who made headlines and won the hearts of Depression-era America. Part adventure, part historical saga, and part coming-of-age love story, West with Giraffes explores what it means to be changed by the grace of animals, the kindness of strangers, the passing of time, and a story told before it's too late.

Date: Thursday, August 4

Time: 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Place: Online, Zoom (link will be sent the day before the class)

Fee: $8, both members and nonmembers, REGISTER

Sweethearts, Nuns and Fallen Women: Victorian Painting

The Victorians idealized the angel of the house, but Avant Garde artists most often depicted women who were outside the protected sphere of middle-class wife and mother. This course will examine the representations of women from Ophelia to the femme fatale by the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood (PRB) and their allies.

Date: Friday, August 5

Time: 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Place: Online, Zoom (link will be sent the day before the class)

Fee: $8, both members and nonmembers, REGISTER

INSTRUCTOR BIOGRAPHIES

Robert Anderson, Reverend, has led courses on a diverse number of topics. He enjoys sharing the challenge of learning with others.

Marc Benton has a master's in communications from the University of Kentucky and a master's in divinity from Yale Divinity School. He has thirty years of pulpit ministry and taught communications at the college level for thirty-one years at the State University of New York Orange County, York College of Pennsylvania, and Harrisburg Area Community College.

Kevin Buck is a late baby boomer who had the good fortune to have older siblings who helped give him a front row seat for the golden age of Rock and Roll. He is the author of the book The Concise History of Rock and Roll.

Tyler Halfhill is a pharmacist for Minnich's Pharmacy in York, Pennsylvania. He has spent the past three years specializing in providing care for elderly patients, including consulting at nursing homes, and optimizing medication regimens for their residents.

Terri Heck of Summit Search and Rescue has actively handled four bloodhounds for both missing person and criminal investigation for twenty-two years. Her K9 partners have been utilized for murder, arson, armed robbery, burglary, along with lesser crimes and missing person cases. As the years went by there were so many moments of anxiety, confusion and guilt observed as folks were affected by missing loved ones and what came forth from the missing when found. Victims of crime suffered. With that realization Heck had Detective K9 Briggs certified as a Therapy Dog in 2017.

Tricia Lingenfield works with Susquehanna Service Dogs and her class is a demonstration opportunity with their Ambassador dog teams. These teams consist of a human handler and a two year+ canine. The teams are very knowledgeable about Susquehanna Service Dogs (SSD) from puppies to placement and will allow time in their presentation for Q&A and meet/greets with the dog.

Nancy McAfee is an art historian who spent eighteen years at the Cleveland Museum of Art as an educator and community outreach director. She has an B.A. from Cornell and an M.A. in art history from Case Western Reserve University. She teaches at Rochester Institute of Technology's Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) and has four grandchildren in Rochester and four in San Francisco.

Jim McClure, author and historian, is the former editor of the York Daily Record and Atlantic group editor, USA Today Network.

Kathryn McClintock has a master's degree in art history from The Pennsylvania State University and taught the introduction to art course through Penn State Outreach for more than twenty years.

Patricia McGrath, an inveterate reader, has led the OLLI book group for many years. She began facilitating video discussion courses (VDC) in winter 2020.

Deborah Miehle has spent thirty years as an educator teaching reading in elementary, middle school, and college. Today she is happily retired and spends her days with her grandchildren, her husband, and the many animals that have gifted her with their company over the years. Stories have captured her heart for years, resulting in her passion for storytelling. Whenever possible she participates in community theater, both on the stage and in the audience. She has been seen on stage at both Footlighters and the Belmont theaters, in the role of Nat in Rabbit Hole, Aunt Ev in the Miracle Worker, several musicals and other behind the scenes work. She is creating characters from history to portray by mixing her love of storytelling and acting. She is excited to be making her first character Pearl S. Buck. She lives in Lancaster with her husband and enjoys the beauty of this great countryside.

Lydell Nunn has been a practicing chiropractor in East York for fourteen years. Six years ago, he began pursuing astronomy and astrophotography as hobbies. In 2019, he began a master's program in space studies with a concentration in astronomy from American Public University, which he completed in February 2021. He built an observatory in his backyard, from which he captures images of the cosmos, two of which were published in Sky and Telescope magazine. He is a member of the York County, Rittenhouse, and American Astronomical Societies.

Dr. Jessica Petko is an associate professor of biology at Penn State York. She earned her Ph.D. in genetics from the Penn State College of Medicine in Hershey in 2015 and teaches courses in genetics, developmental biology, and cell biology at Penn State York. She is passionate about undergraduate research and involves students in her projects investigating circadian rhythms in spiders.

Joel Rodney holds a Ph.D. in the history of England from Cornell University. A summer Fulbright grant took him to India more than sixty years ago, and he has continued his connections there ever since. Since his retirement as chancellor of Penn State York, he has served as dean of academics at Apeejay Stya University, the first liberal arts university in India.

Richard Santel has been OLLI's movie guy since 2012.

Brittany Stump is a sophomore at Penn State York majoring in immunology. She will be headed to University Park in the fall of 2022 to complete her studies. Stump performs research with Dr. Jessica Petko on endosymbiotic bacteria in the invasive spotted lantern fly.

Ken Swalgin, Ph.D. Ohio State, is a retired faculty with emeritus status in the kinesiology department at Penn State York. He is now president of the White Rose Pickleball Association (WRPA) a 501 (C) 3 nonprofit corporation. The WRPA has more than 400 members and have built eight outdoor courts in Veterans Memorial Park across from York Catholic High School. Their website is <http://yorkpickleball.org>.

Bruce Teeple is a writer, speaker, and local historian. He has degrees in history and political science from Penn State. He also currently serves on the State Advisory Committee of the National History Day in PA competition and as president of the Union County Historical Society (www.unioncopahistory.com).
