Winter Semester Information

Venue

For the winter 2022 semester, we will offer in-person and Zoom courses. Courses are listed in chronological order. Please take note whether a course is in-person or via Zoom.

- In-person courses will take place on the Penn State York campus in the OLLI classroom, room 31B/C, in the Main Classroom Building, Conference Center. A campus map is on the last page of this catalog.
- Zoom courses or online social event links will be emailed to you the day before your course.

Fees

The fee for all single-session courses is $8 for members and nonmembers. Winter semester is a great time to bring a friend and allow them to experience OLLI at the discounted member price!

Registration

Registration opens for members and nonmembers on Monday, December 13. You can register online or complete the Course Registration Form at the end of this catalog and mail to the address on the form.

Cancellation

Refunds for courses will be given in the form of credit only, no cash. Credit will only be given if you call the office at least one week before the start of the course. For a refund, multi-session courses must be canceled for all sessions. Cancellation (with refund) for particular sessions is not allowed. At the end of each semester, all credits will be refunded back to you. If you registered with a credit card, you will receive a refund soon after you cancel a course. If you paid by check, you will receive a check after the semester ends.

Wait List

If you cannot attend a course for which you are registered, please call and let us know so we may add someone from the wait list. If you are on a wait list and a seat opens, our office will email and call the first on the list. If we do not get a response in 48 hours, we will call the next person on the list.

Inclement Weather

It is your responsibility to check the following if there is inclement weather:

- Our website, olli.psu.edu/York
- OLLI at Penn State York's Facebook page, @OLLIPennStateYork
- In the event of a two-hour delay, an email will be sent to all 11:00 a.m. course registrants informing them if the instructor is holding the course. If you don't have email, the OLLI office will call you.

Illness

If you have an active cold or cough, please stay home and take care of yourself. If you have a fever or have knowingly been exposed to anyone who has tested positive for COVID, you must cease from coming to OLLI courses for two weeks. Thank you for keeping us all safe so that we can continue to meet in person!

Do you have other questions about OLLI? You can find most answers on our website, olli.psu.edu. You can also contact our office, olli@york.psu.edu or 717-771-4015.

Winter Courses

Penn State requires all students, faculty, staff, and visitors – regardless of vaccination status – to wear masks indoors at all campuses.

Book Club: The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry by Rachel Joyce

Meet Harold Fry, recently retired. He lives in a small English village with his wife, Maureen, who seems irritated by almost everything he does, even down to how he butters his toast. Little differentiates one day from the next. Then one morning the mail arrives, and within the stack of quotidian minutiae is a letter addressed to Harold in a shaky scrawl from a woman he hasn't seen or heard from in twenty years.

Instructor Bios

Robert (Bob) Anderson Robert Anderson has led courses on a diverse number of topics. He enjoys sharing the challenge of learning with others. Anderson also enjoys traveling, and this winter he will provide two quizzes based upon his travels.

Steve Beck has a B.A. in urban studies and an M.A. in geography and environmental planning. He has more than thirty years of professional experience in the use of geospatial technologies including geographic information systems (GIS) in creating, analyzing, and publishing geographic data in the form of digital maps and web pages. He has more than eight years of experience in teaching fundamentals of GIS and mapping at the college level as an adjunct instructor. Beck currently teaches world regional geography and geographic information systems at York College of Pennsylvania.

Marc Benton has a master's in communications from the University of Kentucky and a master's in divinity from Yale Divinity School. He has thirty years of pulpit ministry and taught communications at the college level for thirty-one years at the State University of New York Orange County, York College of Pennsylvania, and Harrisburg Area Community College.

Sonya Bloom has facilitated TED Talk discussions for OLLI for several years. During COVID, she added Schmoozery to her repertoire of OLLI events, facilitating on Zoom to allow all OLLI members to attend.

Peg Chown is a recovering attorney and former director of OLLI at Penn State York. Before OLLI, she was an assistant attorney general for the State of Minnesota, an Air Force JAG officer, taught law and politics at the graduate and undergraduate levels, and was dean of Extended Campus Programs at three universities.

Don Gogniat worked as an administrator for The Pennsylvania State University and professor and chancellor for Penn State York before retirement. He served in the Peace Corps and worked as regional planner for the Costa Rican National Planning Office. He also sailed multiple times on Semester at Sea where he taught geography, global studies, and served as executive dean.

Lawrence Golan is the music director of the Denver Philharmonic Orchestra in Colorado, the Yakima Symphony Orchestra in Washington State, the Lamont Symphony Orchestra, the Opera Theatre at the University of Denver, and the York Symphony Orchestra.

Katharina Haun has studied recorder and cornetto at the Kunstuniversität Graz, the Mozarteum Salzburg and the Schola Cantorum Basiliensis. She is an instrumentalist in many Early Music Ensemble and was invited as a guest speaker at multiple conferences and universities (e.g. Universidad Central in Bogotá). Living in Basel, Switzerland, she is the head of the Basel Boys' choir school and is working as a music pedagogue in many schools and music schools. Her research interest is mainly in the field of her instrument, the cornetto as well as Renaissance Music.

Josh Hooper, in addition to his career as Executive Director of Pennsylvania Environmental Resource Consortium (PERC), Josh is also a fellow in the Climate Reality Leadership Corps, an international network of individuals trained to present on the reality of the climate crisis. Prior to his sustainability leadership roles, Josh spent many years in marketing and broadcasting, holding senior management and creative roles as well as hosting a show called PM Magazine on WGAL. He has also taught both on the secondary level and in higher education.

Ali Kara, Ph.D., is a professor of marketing at Penn State University, York campus. He also serves as the discipline coordinator of Business and Economics Division, University College. Kara was the recipient of the 2019 Milton S. Eisenhower Award for Distinguished Teaching. He has also received the York campus James H. Burness Award for Excellence in Teaching (2016) and Academic Advising Award (2010 and 2019). Dr. Kara has published extensively in academic journals such as the Journal of Marketing Research, Journal of Advertising, and more.

Joel Kroft studied adult development and aging in college and graduate school and has spent more than twenty years working in the senior living industry. For the last thirteen years he has been the executive director of Memory Support Services at Country Meadows Retirement Communities where he oversees the care of 700 individuals living with dementia. His focus is on improving the quality of life for those residents and to help change stereotypes and attitudes toward Alzheimer's disease and other forms of dementia.

Kathryn McClintock has a master's degree in art history from The Pennsylvania State University and taught the introduction to art course through Penn State Outreach for more than twenty years.

Jim McClure is an author and historian, is the former editor of the York Daily Record and Atlantic group editor, USA Today Network.

Pat McGrath, an inveterate reader and has led the OLLI book group for many years. She began facilitating Video Discussion Courses (VDC) in winter 2020.

Curtis Nelson is a retired college music professor with over thirty-five years of classroom and performance experience. He delights in bringing new understanding of music history to students and anyone who will listen.

Rich Santel is OLLI's Movie Guy, presenting a selection of film comedies sure to lift members' spirits this winter semester!

JJ Sheffer produces York Story Slam, York: Crafted, and several other arts and humanities programs in York, Pennsylvania that aim to give smart people an audience and a microphone and is also a frequent storyteller and emcee at story slams throughout the region and online. She has facilitated storytelling workshops and trainings on how to host storytelling events and loves helping people become better storytellers and listeners.
